DES MOINES, June 1.—(Special Telegram)—Grandpa Traffley's gang of festive ball players stopped long enough to let their mad plunges toward the tail end of the aggregation of blooming youths from Omaha.

They didn't let the visitors get a smell of a chance to cross the home rubber. The teams came here to fight for fourth place, and Omaha got it. But Des Moines will get there yet, if only left alone. The meager record of the home team made in the east after the fine start it had, so dampened the enthusiasm of the local fans that only about 500 went down to see the game.

CITIZENS' TROUPE DEBATS

Preliminary rounds in the Sixth Annual Contest Held Yesterday Afternoon.

NONE OF THE PLAY WAS BRILLIANT

Such Interest Felt in the Probable Outcome and the Battle for the Championships that Will Follow—Culling-ham in Good Form.

Yesterday afternoon the sixth annual lawn tennis tournament, held under the auspices of the Omaha Lawn Tennis Club, was opened on the club grounds, at Twenty-third and Harney streets. Play was commenced at 3 o'clock and continued throughout the afternoon and evening. All the matches of the preliminary round were of a high quality, unusual and expected in the preliminary, although the playing was not of a brilliant order, although a number of pretty games occurred in the course of the play. The spectators who were present, however, were amply repaid by the brilliant exhibition of tennis that was given in two sets played by Cullingham and Austin.

The tournament promises to bring out some hot games. There are in the neighborhood of twenty-five entries, and while the majority of them are players who were seen in the tournaments of last year, there are several new players, one of whom, at least, may be looked upon in the nature of a dark horse. This is Dr. Bannister, who lives at the fort. He won his preliminary yesterday without much difficulty. In practice he has faced a number of the crack players of the city, and has inspired them with wholesome respect. There is not much to say, however, of picking snark horses, a lesson that was taught by last year's tournament, when the winners were picked at that time as sure winners from Austin, but for all that that wiry young fellow is playing very serenely at the end of the contest on top.

Austin's playing this year is an improvement over his play of last year. He is a player of the first class, and he is the wise one this year will not be taken in as he was last by his apparently erratic game. For it does seem erratic. At times he makes the mistake of hitting the ball, and returns, and will then tumble all over himself on easy balls. That is, apparently, his only error at this point, where he has to play these little tumbles, and he has to play very perceptible degree. Vide his match with Whitman in the interstate tournament last year, but at the conclusion will challenge the winner for the city championship.

Among the other players C. H. Young has also improved, beating Dennis yesterday with a very good game of tennis with practice, but he has not been practicing at all this season. Another player who will be in at the end of the tournament is Judge C. H. Young, who is a player of the first class, and he is the wise one this year will not be taken in as he was last by his apparently erratic game. For it does seem erratic. Large Attendance Induces the Management to Prolong the Union Park Meeting—Exciting Finishes the Role Yesterday.

That the Council Bluffs Jockey club is fully warranted in continuing the present meeting of the thoroughbreds at Union park was evidenced by the crowd and enthusiasm that was to be witnessed there yesterday, the originally intended closing day. The weather was fine, with a sky filled with floating clouds, and with a delightful breeze blowing from the south, it wasn't much of a trick to keep comfortable when once within the cool and shady precincts of the lovely park. Long before the tintinnabulations of the saddling bell first quavered on the summer air there were fully 2,000 people present. Both of the commodious big stands were filled, the betting ring was a human bee hive, the paddock and lawn packed and the carriage way a tangle of well turned. And this has been the rule throughout the meeting, with the exception of one or two disagreeable incidents.

GIFFORD'S AND A NEW MARK

Club Member's Handicap at St. Louis Won by Rose's Great Galloper.

GIFFORD'S AND A NEW MARK

Had a Car Load of Money on the Winner from 4 to 1 to Even—Southern People Played Faraday 2 to 1 All Over the Ring.

ST. LOUIS, June 1.—The Chicago contingent who came over to play the great Clifford in today's Club Members' handicap had money in every pocket and credit to spare. They made a "killing" that will be a memorable one. The bookies took money in rolls at even figures on Clifford, while the St. Louis and southern people pinned their faith to Faraday. Libertine had many friends, likewise the erratic Sumo, in fact, every horse in the race carried a good sum of money, both straight and place, attracted by faith in the chances of winning or by the long odds. It was said that the owners of Faraday had $25,000 placed here and elsewhere on his horse, and it is known that Rose, the owner of Clifford, had as much as $20,000 up. About 22,000 people witnessed the great event.

When the bell sounded the first in the parade was Clifford, with Chorn astride him; next came Faraday with Turner up, then Libertine with Maklin up, Prince Carl with Bergen up, Henry Young with A. Clayton up and Sumo last with Garner up. Books were made long before the start, and Clifford was posted an even money favorite, with the great gray horse Faraday a strong second choice at 3 to 2. Henry Young was 8 to 1 and the others were 10 to 12. When the regular betting began Clifford opened at 4 to 3 and his price fluctuated between 4 to 1 and even. Faraday opened and closed at 2 to 1 and his price never changed. The opening and closing odds were: Henry Young, 10 to 1; Faraday, 2 to 1; Prince Carl, 12 to 1; Sumo, 20 and 30. Most of the money went in on Clifford, but all around the ring were hundreds of bettors who had faith in the gray horse, and they could not be steered off. No matter how much money went in on him the bookies stood by the opening price.

For five minutes the horses were at the post and after one breakaway they got off with Faraday in front and Sumo, Carl, Clifford, Libertine and Henry Young in the order named, passing the stand. Libertine had taken command and was one and a half lengths in front of Faraday, who was the favorite. Henry Young was a half length behind the second division. Libertine cut out a hot pace and at the quarter was four lengths in front of Faraday and Henry Young, Clifford, Sumo and Carl in the order named. Faraday took command at the three-quarters and Clifford had moved into third place, a length behind Libertine, and this was the position when they entered the stretch. Henry Young beaten off. Up the stretch they thundered and Clifford was given his head. Clifford, Libertine and Henry Young were all within a whisker of each other, but Clifford had either whip or spur. He landed four lengths in front of Prince Carl, who left Faraday one length for the place. When Clifford was in the lead, the crowd on the horse was loudly cheered and Chorn was called to the stand and placed within an immense forest of horseshoes. ST. LOUIS, June 1.—The Chicago contingent who came over to play the great Clifford in today's Club Members' handicap had money in every pocket and credit to spare. They made a "killing" that will be a memorable one. The bookies took money in rolls at even figures on Clifford, while the St. Louis and southern people pinned their faith to Faraday. Libertine had many friends, likewise the erratic Sumo, in fact, every horse in the race carried a good sum of money, both straight and place, attracted by faith in the chances of winning or by the long odds. It was said that the owners of Faraday had $25,000 placed here and elsewhere on his horse, and it is known that Rose, the owner of Clifford, had as much as $20,000 up. About 22,000 people witnessed the great event.

When the bell sounded the first in the parade was Clifford, with Chorn astride him; next came Faraday with Turner up, then Libertine with Maklin up, Prince Carl with Bergen up, Henry Young with A. Clayton up and Sumo last with Garner up. Books were made long before the start, and Clifford was posted an even money favorite, with the great gray horse Faraday a strong second choice at 3 to 2. Henry Young was 8 to 1 and the others were 10 to 12. When the regular betting began Clifford opened at 4 to 3 and his price fluctuated between 4 to 1 and even. Faraday opened and closed at 2 to 1 and his price never changed. The opening and closing odds were: Henry Young, 10 to 1; Faraday, 2 to 1; Prince Carl, 12 to
